

Call For Papers

The First China Summer Workshop on Information Management (CSWIM'07) July 22-23, 2007, Shanghai, China

<http://cswim2007.ecom.arizona.edu>

The First China Summer Workshop on Information Management (CSWIM'07) will be held on July 22-23, 2007 in Shanghai, China. As China has become a major player in the world's economy and various technological fields, information systems and management research opportunities abound for scholars around the globe. The purpose of the workshop is to create a new bridge to promote more exchanges between scholars in China and overseas in the area of information systems and management. In particular, CSWIM focuses on creating a unique experience for MIS researchers around the world who would like to communicate and collaborate with China-based scholars.

We invite submissions of original research papers addressing issues concerning the theory, design, development, evaluation, and application of information systems and management. As a research workshop, we encourage submissions of research-in-progress that are innovative and thought-provoking. Research articles are particularly sought that are driven by business problems and validated with proper research methodologies. Research topics include, but are not limited to:

- Agent-based Information Systems
- Business Modeling Techniques
- Business Process Management and Engineering
- Economic Issues of Information Technology
- Emerging Technologies
- Individual, Social, and Cultural Aspects of IT Use
- Information Personalization Technology
- Information Quality and Security
- IS Strategy, Governance, and Management
- IT Adoption in Organization
- IT Applications (e.g., CRM and SCM)
- Knowledge Management Systems and Technologies
- Mobile Business and Wireless Technologies
- Privacy, Assurance and Trust
- Service-Oriented Enterprises and Architectures
- Social Computing
- Technologies and Systems of e-Business and e-Government
- Web2.0 Related Issues
- Web-based Information Systems
- Workflow Technologies and Applications

Submission Instructions

All submissions must be in English, and the file must be submitted in Microsoft Word .DOC or PDF via the workshop system at <http://cswim2007.ecom.arizona.edu>. Length of submissions, including all contents, is limited to 5 single-spaced, 8.5" by 11" pages with Times New Roman, 12-point font, and 1" margins on all sides. Violation of the format will result in the rejection of the submission without review. More specific submission instructions will be available at the workshop website.

All submissions will be reviewed double blind. Selection for presentation at the workshop will be based on originality, contribution to the field, and workshop interest. An important criterion in evaluating the submission is the preference for a problem-driven approach, i.e., papers that focus on pure technical issues but are not clearly relevant to solving business problems are less likely to be accepted. Extended abstracts of presentations will be published at the workshop website.

Important Dates

Deadline for paper submission: March 15, 2007
Notification of acceptance: April 15, 2007
Early registration begins: May 10, 2007 (revised)
Camera-ready copy due: May 15, 2007
Early registration closes: June 30, 2007 (revised)
Workshop dates: July 22-23, 2007

Workshop Co-Chairs

Lihua Huang (lh Huang@fudan.edu.cn), Fudan University, China
Han Zhang (han.zhang@mgt.gatech.edu), Georgia Institute of Technology, USA
J. Leon Zhao (jlzhao@u.arizona.edu), University of Arizona, USA

Publicity Chair

Guoqing Chen (chengq@em.tsinghua.edu.cn), Tsinghua University, China

Local Arrangements Chair

Hong Ling (hling@fudan.edu.cn), Fudan University, China

Webmaster and Conference System Manager

Harry J. Wang (hjwang@lerner.udel.edu), University of Delaware, USA

Review Coordinator:

Manlu Liu (manliulu@email.arizona.edu), University of Arizona, USA

International Advisory Committee

Prabuddha De, Purdue University
Alan Hevner, University of South Florida
Stuard Madnick, MIT
Jay F. Nunamaker, University of Arizona
Andrew B. Whinston, University of Texas at Austin
Huacheng Xue, Fudan University

Program committee list is available at <http://cswim2007.ecom.arizona.edu>